Have Teamsters been as upset about the vaccine mandate as the CTA?

They didn't voice it to me but might've to you

Nope.

They stated they are OK with it, but are going to get real annoyed if employers start fucking around with terminations etc.

But, key point: teamsters rep big companies, it's the small operators that are creating all the noise within CTA (in my opinion).

That makes total sense. Thanks for this.

Did you hear about the truckers/ vaccine mandate?

Hahaha no. Not at all. Did something happen that might confuse a crucial stakeholder?
